

NEW CHIEF HYDROGRAPHER OF INDONESIA

First Admiral T.H. Soesetyo, New Chief Hydrographer of Indonesia

First Admiral T.H. Soesetyo was appointed as a new Indonesian Chief Hydrographer. He has substituted First Admiral I Nyoman Arinu S. on 21st August 2002. He was born in Semarang, Central Java on 5th August 1954. He has joined in Indonesian Navy from Indonesian Naval Academy in 1976 and had completed his qualification at the Armed Forces Staff and Command College Course XXV in 1997.

First Admiral T.H. Soesetyo has had the following several military education, 3-M Systems Course in 1981, OBA Cadre Training Course in 1981, Tactical Procedure Course in 1982, Hydrographic Officer Course in 1982, Cours De Hydrographique Et Oceanographique Pratique in 1984, Officer Secondary Course III in 1985, and Naval Staff and Command College Course XXXI in 1993.

He has joined the Indonesian Hydro-Oceanographic Service in 1983 and stationed in various jobs in several survey ships and staff. He was appointed as Commanding Officer of KAL Baruna Jaya II and KRI Dewa Kembar 932, Commanding Officers of Ships and Survey Units, and Deputy Hydrographer before being stationed as Chief Hydrographer.

First Admiral Soesetyo has awarded the Seroja Medal (Satya Lencana Seroja), the Faithful Medal (Satya Lencana Kesetiaan) for 24 years, and the Second Class of the Instructor Medal I (Satya Lencana Dwidya Sista I).