

Training Program on Hydrographic Surveying and Ocean Observation

*Republic of Korea, Incheon
8-23 July 2006*

The National Oceanographic Research Institute (NORI) of the Republic of Korea hosted a training program on hydrographic surveying & ocean observation for two weeks in July 2006 with the support of the Korea International Cooperation Agency (KOICA). 14 government employees from 14 countries such as Jamaica, Philippines, Indonesia, Egypt, Malaysia, Samoa islands, Dominican Republic, Ecuador, Pakistan, Myanmar, Sri Lanka, Morocco, Tunisia, Algeria, Congo, participated in this program.

Training Program on Hydrographic Surveying and Ocean Observation, 8-23 July 2006

Participants:

1. Mr. Mohammad Tarik Ikbal
Executive Officer, Bangladesh Navy, Ministry of Defense, Bangladesh
2. Mr. Alain Claver Batchy
Consultant, Ministry of Transports Maritime, Congo
3. Ms. Nadjiba Ait Daoud
Engineer, Direction of Maritime and Ocean Fishing, Ministry of Fishing and Halieutics Resources, Algeria
4. Mr. Carlos Mishelen
Ambassador, National Oceanographic Commission, Dominican Republic
5. Mr. Marcelo Vicente Ayabaca Cazar
Coordinator, Meteorology and Hydrologic National Institute, Ecuador
6. Mr. Aly Saber Aly Ahmed

- Civil Engineer, Study and Research Sector, Shore Protection Authority, Egypt
7. Mr. Muhammad Hasanudin
Researcher, Research Center for Oceanography Indonesian Institute of Science, Indonesia.
8. Ms. Myint Myint Khaing
Assistant Director, Remote Sensing Center, Ministry of Science and Technology, Myanmar
9. Ms. Cynthia R. Edwards
Chief Hydrographer, National Land Agency, Jamaica
10. Mr. Mohammad Dahish
Senior Research Officer, Geology and Geophysics, National Institute of Oceanography, Pakistan
11. Mr. John Leqata
Principal Fisheries Officer, Fisheries & Marine Resources, Ministry of National Resource, Samoa island
12. Mr. Edgar J. Amoin
Associate Professor, Maritime Training Division, National Maritime Polytechnic, Philippines
13. Ms. Renuka Priyantha Ranaweera
Regional Officer, Marine Pollution Prevention Authority, Ministry of Environment, Sri Lanka
14. Ms. Sana Ben Ismail
Engineer of Research, Marine Environment, National Institute of Marine Science and Technology, Tunisia

Reported by Mr. Su-Ho LEE(Korea)