

KOICA Training Program on Hydrographic Surveying and Ocean Observation

Republic of Korea, Incheon
3-18 June 2007

The National Oceanographic Research Institute (NORI) of the Republic of Korea hosted the 2nd training program on hydrographic surveying & ocean observation for two weeks in June 2007 with the support of the Korea International Cooperation Agency (KOICA). 13 government employees from 13 countries such as Jamaica, Philippines, Indonesia, Egypt, Bangladesh, Dominican Republic, Ecuador, Pakistan, Myanmar, Guinea, Guinea-Bissau, Algeria, Gabon, participated in this program.

Participants:

1. Mr. Medhat Abdel-Mohsen Ali
Researcher, Coastal Research Institute, Egypt
2. Mr. Calvin Thomson
Manager of Topographic and hydrographic Surveys, Jamaica
3. Mr. Mohammad Ahtashamul Haq Khan
Lieutenant Commander of Hydrography Department, Bangladesh
4. Mr. Kyaw Zaya Htun
Assistant Researcher of Ministry of Science and Technology, Myanmar
5. Mr. Fayyaz Ul Hassan Batti
Staff Officer of ENC Division of Hydrographic Department, Pakistan
6. Mr. Leopoldo Garganera Abelinde
Associate Professor of National Maritime Polytechnic, Philippines
7. Mr. Aldo Dileccio Vanderlinder Henriquez
Civil Engineer of National Institution of Hydraulic Resource, Dominica Republic
8. Mr. Adi Purwandana
Researcher of Research Center for Oceanography of Indonesian Institute of

Science, Indonesia

9. Mr. Aili Karim
Researcher, Main Hydrography on vessel C.F.N/MDN of Navy, Algeri
10. Mr. Soriba Facinet Bangoura
Vice Researcher of the National Center of Haliautic Researches of Bassoura,
Guinea
11. Mrs. Rita Comes Correia Funny
RHO of Oceanography and Resources Holeutic, Guinea-Bissaues
12. Mr.Victor Ezequiel Alcivar
Professor of Eloy Alfro University, Ecaudor
13. Mr. Koweth-Deemin Christian
Consultant of Ministry of Merchant Marine, Gabon

Reported by Mr. Suho LEE(Republic of Korea)