

Celebration of World Hydrography Day 2010 in Japan

The Hydrographic and Oceanographic Department of Japan (JHOD) issued a press release and made a poster to promote of World Hydrography Day (WHD) 2010 and organised following events from 17th to 23rd June to celebrate WHD.

Poster of WHD in Japan

Meeting of Directors of the Regional Hydrographic and Oceanographic Department

JHOD held a meeting of Directors of the Regional Hydrographic and Oceanographic Department to discuss the issue and future outlooks for Regional Hydrographic and Oceanographic Departments at JHOD in Tokyo from 17th to 18th June. At the beginning of the meeting, Dr. Shigeru Kato, the Chief Hydrographer, delivered a brief speech on the World Hydrography Day.

Hydrographic and Oceanographic Museum

JHOD opened the Hydrographic and Oceanographic Museum to the public from 21st to 23rd June, where IHO publications, poster and slideshow describing the IHO, “Ino-Zu (Japanese historical maps)”, and old Military Charts, etc. were on display.

Reported by JHOD, Japan